Operative G T Purdy.

Re: Jane Gibson.

Interview with: John Gorry and his son, William J. Gorry at 20 Moffat Ave., Trenton. John Gorry was out at Lawrenceville Fire Headquarters.

Operative went to the home of William Gorry, son of John Gorry, at 20 Moffat Ave. and learned from his wife that John Gorry is at the Lawrenceville Fire Headquarters during the week and returns to 20 Moffatt Ave. week ends. She further stated that her husband, William Gorry, would be home at 9:15 P.M. and they intended to drive over to see John Gorry and invited operative to accompany them. She stated that she knows Mrs. Gibson well and that they knew her as "Gypsy Mary" and that she often came to their house and ate with them when they lived in De Russey's Lane and that Mrs. Gibson has always been known to be a liar.

At 9:15 P.M. we drove to Lawrenceville and I interviewed John Gorry at the Fire House, who stated that the information which he has is in regards to Sipple, who had told him (Gorry) of Mrs. Gibson approaching him (Sipple) and offering him $100. if he would say that he drove his car in the Lane near the Phillips Farm House the night of Sept. 14th, 1922. Mr. Gorry told Mr. Strong the same thing. This was before Mr. Sipple told anyone else about it. Mr. Gorry further stated that he knows the Gibson woman well and that he built a house for her in trade for a horse and when he went to get the horse he found she had sold the horse to someone else, and after having some words with her he finally got a small horse from her.

Mr. Gorry further stated that he knew Stumpy Gilliland and that Stumpy once told him that he lived with the Gibson woman at the Brook. Mr. Gorry sold the horse he got from the Gibson woman to Stumpy Gilliland for $12. and when Stumpy died she tried to claim the horse, but Stumpy's brother from New York would not give it to her. Gilliland had agreed to purchase the horse from Mr. Gorry on time and had only paid $4. on it when he died. Mr. Gorry finally got the horse back. Mr. Gorry also stated that he often traded with her, but that she had to be watched all the time or she would cheat.

Operative asked Mr. Gorry if he knew where the Coffey family are located and he states that they are still in De Russey's Lane, the second house on the left, off Hamilton Ave. He also gave me a tip to see the Steinhaur family, who also live in the Lane near the Coffey family.

Mr. Gorry states that he is going to go to New Brunswick and will see Sipple and talk the matter over with him so that he will be able to refresh his memory as to when the conversation took place.

Respectfully submitted:
